Program cost $6000

Includes 2, 5-Day Classes and Training Materials

Staking U's Train the Trainer program allows your trainer to certify your own company's locators to the standards set forth by Staking University.

1. Must attend a five-day Staking U training program and pass the certification test. ($2325)
2. *Must attend a second five-day program to assist and then lead the training of attendees through the hands-on certification process. ($2325)
3. Must purchase and incorporate the current and future training material produced by Staking U. ($1350) This "bundle pack" includes:
  - "Locating Unlimited" training issues of Underground Focus magazine
  - Locating PowerPoint presentation
  - Locating Unlimited video
  - Language of Locating video
4. Both the Locating Unlimited training DVD and Language of Locating DVD should be part of your training curriculum. The Underground Focus magazines are to be given to individuals that take classes from you once you are certified by us as a trainer. These magazines are sold at cost to you ($7 per student you train).
5. The Train-the-Trainer certification is valid for two years. Re-certification can be done by attending either the a 5-day course in Manteno IL or Hemet CA, or attending any 2-day Locator Certification Seminar across the country.
6. Individuals certified by the trainer have certificates issued through Staking U that are valid for two years. Re-certification for these individuals must be completed by taking a 5-day or 2-day training offered by Staking U, or by taking the Staking U on-line certification course.

**There is no time frame requirement from when you take the first 5-day training until you take the second 5-day training. You may space out as convenient to your availability and schedule.*
